As a new year dawns, let's give thanks for all the Lord has done for us last year, and release all that caused us anger, pain and frustration. Let's pray for the Father's blessing on this year.	Please pray that the Lord will bless New Zealand this year, healing our divisions and forgiving our collective failures as a nation in the past year.	"For I know the plans I have for you," declares the Lord, "plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future." Jeremiah 29:	Father, today we remember that you are a God of justice, and we pray that this year you will bring justice to the parts of the world where there is strife, war and oppression.	Please pray for those harmed by domestic and family violence in Whangārei, especially during a season that is called a holiday season but may not be for some families.	As the star led the magi to Jesus, we pray that the Church can shine a light on the darkness in our world and lead people to our Saviour.	Please pray for all those who work in emergency services during a really busy time of the year that they will be a blessing and be safe.

Let's pray for the peace and prosperity of our city and for the Father's bless- ing on it. (Jer. 29: 7)	Sulis B: Please pray for Sulis' protection at the start of another year and for pathways through the challenges posed by outreach in her part of the world.	Please pray against the problem of slavery. Against those that profit from it and for the freedom of the slaves, and for them to hear the good news.	Shane & Helen B: For praise: For safe travels and a warm welcome home. For prayer: that settling back into Whangārei goes smoothly.	My enemies turn back; they stumble and perish before you. For you have upheld my right and my cause, sitting enthroned as the righteous judge. Ps. 9: 3 - 4	Please pray for our community as the cost of everyday necessities continues to go up and more people find it hard to make ends meet.	Hân P: For prayer: That Hân finds ways to communicate the gospel that resonate with the community. That she is a powerful witness for her faith in her community.

Stephanie H: For praise: That Stephanie has been able to take some leave. For prayer: That Stephanie and the school staff will be refreshed for the start of the year. That the 3 incoming classes start smoothly.	Elaine H: Please pray for Elaine our inner-city chaplain and for the team that she leads reaching out to local business and the new ministry at the courthouse next door.	Please pray for those who will be receiving NCEA exam results today after a stressful wait. Please pray for those who don't get the result they wanted.	We pray for the situation in Ukraine, because of the danger of the situation tipping over into something worse. Please pray for a just end to the war there.	Please pray for our community as healthcare goes through a rough patch. Please pray for more doctors, nurses and allied workers	You LORD have been a refuge for the poor, a refuge for the needy in their distress, a shelter from the storm and a shade from the heat. Isa. 25: 4	Xuan & Ngoan in VN: For wisdom as they continue to minister to the group established after the healing of a woman Ngoan prayed for.

Please pray for all of those who minister in the Vietnamese communities, as today is the Vietnam- ese new year (Tết) which is both really busy and often a time for outreach.	Father when answers to prayer seem elusive help us to remember that to relinquish the situation to you and the wisdom not to rush into something you are dealing with.	Greg & Lisa W: For prayer: That they are able to raise the extra funds needed for their ministry.	cob protect you.	Please pray for those who are homeless in Whangārei. For more emergency housing in Whangārei. That those who are looking for a home in our city will find one.	Harry: For prayer: For developing relationships and opportunities as the team get to know the community around their new base.	Chau: For praise: That the Lord was with him ministering to so many different people from across the country and from all walks of life.
