

PrayerNet

HOPE WHANGĀREI has a confidential prayer network committed to pray for folk facing crises. If you need help, please contact the church office and we will take it from there. Privacy is critical, so if you are asking for prayer for someone else they must agree to your request.

You can contact us on 09 438 1667 or e-mail:

Please pray for the teachers and pupils who head back to school in the next week for the start of a new school year.		Please pray for those in the emergency services and give thanks for the work that they do.		Adrian W: Please pray for Adrian and the hospital chaplains as they minister to patients who are often facing tough situations.		Please pray for the situation in the South China Sea as tensions between China and neighbouring countries rises. Please pray that cooler heads will keep it from escalating.		In peace I will lie down and sleep, for you alone, O Lord, will keep me safe. (Ps 4: 8)		We remember the presentation of Jesus in the temple and the prophecies of His reconciling us with God and His being the light in our broken world.		Greg and Lisa W: For prayer: That the friends they are making in their new community will be open to talking about faith and Christianity.

				Lord we turn to you as the source of all authority. Please guide all Kiwis, to choose unity over division, and to bless our future and heal our past.		Please pray for safe travels for Lorne and Sue while they are on holiday.		Please pray for safe travels for Pauline as she travels to Dunedin for a block course, also that the students on the block course will be blessed by the content.		Hân P: For prayer: For safe travels as Hân travels home to spend Tet with her family.		We pray for the Father's blessing on Howard, whose birthday is today.

Please pray for our churches as we continue our journey through Mark's gospel. Please pray that the LORD would continue to speak to us by His word.		Please pray for Lorne as he returns from leave and for the gifts he brings to this ministry.		Father thank you for opening a way of reconciliation through the death and resurrection of your son.		Thank you Father that you forgive the sins of anyone who is genuine. We ask forgiveness for our failings and help to forgive others who fail us.		Even to your old age and grey hairs; I am he, I am he who will sustain you. I have made you and I will carry you; I will sustain you and I will rescue you. Isa 46:4		Please pray for the City to City workshop in Auckland as our people attend. Help it confirm for us that this consultation process is part of what God is wanting for our church in 2024.		Please pray for the Northern presbytery meeting in Auckland today. Pray for unity and good decision making.
18	1st Sunday in Lent	19	Missions	20	Our Church	21	God's promises	22	Missions	23	Our community	24	Missions
Father, invite us into your world & your people. May this time be one of outward focus. Give us hearts hungry to serve you and those who need what we have to give. (Anon.)		Hân P: For praise: That K and H are willing to study the Bible and coming for teaching once a week. For prayer: For wisdom to help K and H grow in faith and know Jesus in the midst of their challenges of life.		We ask that the Lord will bless the small/ connect group ministry as our groups start meeting again in 2021.		Have no fear of sudden disaster or of the ruin that overtakes the wicked, for the LORD will be at your side and will keep your foot from being snared. Prov. 3: 25 - 26.		Sulis B: For praise: For the growth of G's faith. For prayer: Please pray that God will give her a job to meet her needs. Please pray that the presidential election has gone smoothly and safely and that the results don't cause strife.		Today we pray about the disintegration of the family in our society and the open wounds that has caused. We pray for the Father's touch to put us on the path to healing, because only he can.		Stephanie H: For prayer: Give thanks to the Lord for all the 3-year students who have returned to complete the last 3 months of their course. We are giving them more responsibilities – teaching classes to the 3-month students, leading devotions, and helping with pastoral counselling and debates.
25	2nd Sunday in Lent	26	Missions	12	Missions	28	Missions	29	Whangārei	1	Missions	2	God's promises
Thank you Lord God for the opportunity of worship for the freedom to be amongst your family meeting together in your house. Thank you that in worship we can put aside the uncertainties of this world and rest upon the certainties of the Kingdom. ( Borrowed - Faith &amp; Worship )		Stephanie H: For prayer: Please pray for Carol (bible school leader) as she has started with the cancer. Pray for her and Willem that they continue to know the love and support of the LORD during this challenge, and can continue the leadership of the school even from a distance.		Please pray for Elaine H our inner city chaplain and her team as they set up the new ministry at the courthouse opposite the church.		Stephanie H: For prayer: Please pray for Stephanie struggling to get enough time and energy to make progress on her preparation of the teaching the book of Revelation. That along with her other roles she can use time wisely, that the Lord renews her energy daily.		Let's pray for the peace and prosperity of our city and for the Father's blessing on it. (Jer. 29: 7)		Stephanie H: For prayer: Please pray for Andries, a visiting pastor who is providing invaluable teaching but is also struggling with a leg injury that won't heal. Also for Pita another pastor who is teaching but has been sick with malaria.		But from everlasting to everlasting the Lord's love is with those who fear him, and his righteousness with their children's children Ps. 103:
